Sir Alan Cobham,
Grand Buildings,
Trafalgar Square,
LONDON W.C. 2.

Dear Sir,

With reference to the recent interview I had with your publicity Agent relative to the Air Display at Tain on 17th instant, I have now to inform you that the Town Council have granted you permission to land on the Links here for the purpose of conveying passengers to and from Tain on that date.

Permission has also been granted to exhibit a banner in Castle Street.

Yours faithfully,

Town-Clerk

The Town Clerk,
Town Clerk's Office,
Dornoch.

15th May 1934.

Dear Sir,

We are extremely grateful for the permission given for us to land on the Links at Dornoch, but we fear that we should damage the Links, and therefore will not avail ourselves of your extremely kind and courteous offer.

Yours faithfully,
NATIONAL AVIATION DISPLAYS LTD.
