Oversteps Home's Silver Jubilee

It's all of 25 years since the Church of Scotland opened the Oversteps Eventide Home in Dornoch, so a Silver Jubilee dinner was held for residents and friends in the Burghfield House Hotel last Saturday, with the handing over of a TV set, napkin rings and the cutting of a specially-baked cake. In our picture below are (left to right) the Rev James Simpson, parish minister; Mr James Allan, Edinburgh, secretary for Age Concern in the Church; the Rev Frank Gibson, director of social work; Mrs Mary Matheson and Mr George Herd, cutting the cake; matron Mrs Gwen Melville and Mr William Melville; Mrs Georgie Lindsay, Mrs Chrissie Mackay, Mrs Helen Kruger and Mr John Calder, convener of the Oversteps committee.
