

INDEPENDENT STATE OF EMBO

Mrs. Thatcher, Prime Minister Ward (the kilted Fidel Castro look-alike), and a law enforcement official collect taxes from visitors from Kaunakakai - the Johnstones

Self-styled Prime Minister and Community Assoc. representative and Clynelish Distillery tour guide, Nancy Cormac officially welcome their Twin-City Ambassadors

KAUNAKAKAI - EMBO'S TWIN

Kaunakakai - Most Definitely "on the map!"

Maui Mayor Linda Lingle says "Aloha" to Embo's Twin City Ambassadors, Liz & Steuan Robertson and their Kaunakakai counterparts Will & Hannah Johnstone

A HUGE Moloka'i Welcome for visitors from afar Liz & Steuan Robertson

Before we forget - Special Mahalos to some very special people who help keep the "Spirit of Twinning" alive. First, to Liz (a forestry expert) and her accountant husband of three years ("I didn't even know she was an 'activist' when I married her."), her sister and fellow conspirators, to Embo/Kaunakakai residents: Hannah & Will Johnstone, and to Maui Mayor Linda Crockett Lingle who made sure the Robertson had flower leis to greet them when they arrived on Feb. 16, 1997 on their "Diplomatic Mission" (vacation) - Many Thanks.

Mahalo, a well, to all concerned on February 25th when the Mayor came to Moloka'i for her quarterly "talk-story" visit. The honor of meeting representative from Kaunakakai's "Twin City" turned out to be fun for all. A terrific time was had by all!

Let's promise to keep the coconut-wireless (or fax machine) open. Let's also start finding ways to arrange for press-passes to-the 1998 Independence Day Replay!
