Second time lucky as class of 46 line-up is identified

EVERYONE in this archive picture showing teachers and pupils at Blarich School in 1946, can now be identified, thanks to Marjory Sutherland of Morness, Rogart.

Marjory, who started at Blarich School in 1948, got in touch last week after the picture appeared in the Northern Times for a second time.

The teacher standing right had already been identified as Joan MacGregor, who married Rogart Free Church minister Rev Joan Aitken. Joan remained as head teacher at Blarich until 1950.

Marjory names the other teacher (standing left) as her husband Sandy's aunt, Agnes Sutherland. Agnes changed her name to Innes on marriage and her son James Innes lives at Inchcape.

According to Marjory, only Ann Mackay and Kathleen Conn (now Ross) are still in Rogart, with the others having left the area.
