

This dramatic charcoal sketch, depicting the sacking of Dornoch Cathedral by the warring Mackay clan, takes the attention of Heritage Society chairman Peter Wild (left), the Borders-based artist Chris Dodds, and former society chairman Ian Ross Harper. It is only one panel of a number depicting the town's colourful and often tragic history which are now on display in the HistoryLinks heritage centre in Meadows Road.