

Lest We Forget

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power,
and the glory,
for ever.
Amen.

Rt Rev Susan Brown, Chaplain to the Queen in Scotland
Minister of Dornoch Cathedral
Church of Scotland
A Charity Registered In Scotland No. SC000315 Cathedral

Welcome to worship in Dornoch Cathedral! Whether you are local or a visitor, enjoy and be inspired in this place. This morning we welcome back Rev Mary Stobo to the pulpit who will lead us in worship.

The reader this morning is Andrew Mackenzie.

The bells at St Finnbarr's will be rung at 12.30pm today for First World War Commemorations.

Dornoch Cathedral Guild will meet on Tuesday 13th November at 2.30pm in the West Church Hall when the speaker will be Morag Sutherland "Life of Elsie Inglis" ALL WELCOME.

MAD for BAGS on Saturday 17th November at 2.30pm in the West Church Hall. Looking forward to seeing you there.

Highland Hospitals' CAROL CONCERT supporting CLIC Sargent
At the Drumossie Hotel Sunday 2nd December 2018 at 3pm
Tickets £14 on sale at the Music Shop Church Street Inverness
01463 233374

LIFE AND WORK

Payment for the issues Of The Life and Work received during 2018 is now due, 12 magazines @ £2.50 = £30 Cheques should be made payable to Dornoch Cathedral Life and Work. Payment can be given to Margaret MacRae, Life and Work Co-ordinator, on Sunday 11th or 18th November when she will be in the North Aisle after the service.
Anyone who would like to purchase Life and Work in 2019 should contact Margaret as soon as possible as she is putting in the order for 2019 in November.

The Church of Scotland Church and Society Council

Democracy Matters: Community Consultations in Churches

Wording to advertise Democracy Matters Community Consultations

"Do you think your community should have more say in local decision making? How are decisions made in your local community and how do you think this could be done in a better way?"

"If you would like to take part in an informal discussion about how democracy works in your local area, you are warmly invited to a community consultation hosted by Dornoch Cathedral and the Church of Scotland as part of the Scottish Government Democracy Matters consultation.

Dornoch Cathedral – Monday 26th November – West Church Hall 7.00pm
"Ideas shared at this event will be fed in to the Scotland wide consultation."

Dornoch Cathedral 11th November 2018

* The entry of the Colours
INTROIT
WELCOME and NOTICES
PRAYER

*HYMN 528 Make me a channel of your peace

Remembering the reality - From our young people including the poem Dulce et decorum est. The Latin phrase is from the Roman poet Horace: "It is sweet and fitting to die for one's country"

*HYMN 511 Your hand O God has guided - omit v2
READING: Mark 12: 41-44 (p 64)
REFLECTION

*HYMN 303 It came upon the midnight clear - omit v4

In Flanders Field - Ian Shearer

PRAYER
OFFERING and DEDICATION

*HYMN 521 Children of God, reach out to one another

* God save the Queen
*BENEDICTION (*if you are able please stand and please stand for the entry and exit of the Colours)

MODERATOR'S DIARY

11 November: In the morning, the Moderator will lay a wreath on behalf of the General Assembly, at the Annual Service of Remembrance in Edinburgh City Chambers, before leading the prayers of intercession at the Remembrance Sunday Service in St Giles' Cathedral, and then attending the Armistice Day Service at the Scottish National War Memorial.

In the afternoon, the Moderator will provide a Closing Prayer and Blessing at the National Centenary Service in Glasgow Cathedral, commemorating the First Armistice. The service will be attended by HRH The Princess Royal and will be broadcast live on BBC television.

12 November: The Moderator will host the third of a series of buffet lunches for Church of Scotland office staff.

In the evening, Mrs Brown will host a buffet Dinner and discussion focused on encouraging good mental health.

13 November: The Moderator will visit a place of Worship with the Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church and the Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese St Andrews and Edinburgh, to mark Scottish Interfaith Week.

In the evening, the Moderator will host a buffet Dinner during Christian Aid's new CEO, Amanda Mukwashi's visit to Scotland, to allow her to meet ecumenical leaders from Christian Aid's sponsoring churches.

14 November: The Moderator will host the fourth of a series of buffet lunches for Church of Scotland office staff.

In the evening, the Moderator will attend 'Untold Stories: Women of Faith in the Suffragette Movement', a Scottish Interfaith Week event at the Scottish Storytelling Centre in Edinburgh.

15 November: The Moderator will chair 'Honest Conversations: Exploring Evangelism, Da'wah and Dialogue', an event being held at the Steeple Church in Dundee, during Scottish Interfaith Week.

16 November: The Moderator will attend the St Margaret's Chapel Guild: Lunch, Service and AGM at Edinburgh Castle. In partnership with Historic Scotland, St Margaret's Chapel Guild looks after the small Chapel within Edinburgh Castle (the oldest building in Edinburgh) which is dedicated to St Margaret, Queen of Scotland.

In the evening, the Moderator will attend the Boys' Brigade Annual World Mission Evening at Largs St John's, when Mrs Brown will be presented with a cheque for the Boys' Brigade World Mission Fund. The Fund seeks to develop wider knowledge of the World Mission Work of the Church of Scotland and international work of the Boys' Brigade. Over the years, Boys' Brigade Companies have raised over 1.5 million to support overseas projects.