

North drama feast over

LAST night at Dornoch was crunch night as far as the Sutherland Drama Festival was concerned.

Adjudicator Mr Alan Nicol was due to announce the team to go forward to the Highland Divisional Finals at Plockton in April.

On Thursday night the winners were Dornoch in "Brandy Andy." And on that occasion the Thurso Players were also competing, but not against the Sutherland teams.

There is a place to be filled by the team who are first in points, apart from the Nairn and Sutherland festival winners. That team could be Thurso.

Also competing for that place will be the also-rans at the Nairn and Sutherland festivals. Last night's plays —

Winning smiles from Dornoch drama team

SMILES of success from members of the Dornoch Amateur Dramatic Society, whose presentation "Brandy Andy" was adjudged best of the night on Thursday at Sutherland Festival in Dornoch. Back row (left to right):— Alex. Macpherson, Dick Ross, Alistair Topp and Elsie Topp. Front row:— Jean Mackay, Joan Anderson and Helen Kruger.

