

GRANNIE'S HEILAN' HAME

Far away in the highlands there stands a wee hoose,

And it stands on the breest o' the brae—
Where we played as laddies there long, long ago.
And it seems it were just yesterday—
I can still see auld grannie a smile on her face,
Just as sweet as the heather dew—
When I kissed her goodbye with a tear in her eye,
Said "Laddie may God bless you".

In fancy again, as I look o'er at Tain,
When we played on the low Embo shore,
From Dornoch to Skelbo, then round by the Mound,
Was the ramble we'd take o'er and o'er—
And oft times we'd play near the auld quarry
brae

Where the laddies and lassies meet—
And with auld grannie's smile, tae cheer all the while,
We'd stroll in our wee bare feet.

CHORUS

Where the heather bells are blooming
Just outside grannie's door
Where as laddies there we played, in days of long ago

'Neath the shadow of Ben Bhragie
And Golspie's Lordly stane
How I wished that I could see,
My grannie's heilan' hame.

This delightful and beautifully situated cottage immortalised in song by the late Sandy Macfarlane, of Glasgow and Boston, U.S.A., is now the centre of a development scheme designed to offer you, the touring public, a standard of holiday enjoyment seldom before available in Scotland.

As well as the very extensive camping and caravanning area, there are miles of magnificent, safe, sandy beaches, together with many rocks and pools to amuse the children.

The latest turbojet speedboat is provided, under the expert control of John Gillie, for trips and water ski-ing from Embo harbour, which is itself an ideal sheltered swimming pool, while the Royal Dornoch Championship golf course is immediately adjacent.

The essentials have not, of course, been overlooked. Mains water is laid throughout the site, and a system of roads and parking places has been provided. There is ample toilet accommodation, with hot water and hot showers, while, to anticipate your needs, the very latest type of Automatic washing and drying machines has been installed in a Self Service Laundrette at Grannie's Heilan' Hame.

A petrol station is also at your service and your further requirements are amply catered for by the restaurant, cocktail bar and sun lounge with television for the occasional wet evening. The public bar is part of the original cottage and Grannie Cumming's own chair is on display in the cocktail bar. And all this is within a minute or so from your caravan or tent.

A fine whisky has been specially blended for Grannie's Heilan' Hame, our draught beer is extremely popular and our wine cellar is expected to cope with any normal contingency.

Park charges are nominal and restaurant tariffs very moderate. There are three shops in the village, just beside Grannie's Heilan' Hame, and milk is delivered to the park daily.

An independent company, Earnsdale Holidays, Ltd., have a large number of caravans for hire on the site, and details will be provided on application.

A park attendant is always on duty and will be glad to give you any assistance you may require.

Your hosts at Grannie's Heilan' Hame are Jean and Drew Bell, who will welcome equally yourselves, your compliments, your just criticisms or your suggestions for further improvement.
