

Poetry, prose and song at Sutherland Burns events

SCOTLAND'S national bard has been remembered at Burns events across the region.

East Sutherland Rotary Club held a "feast of fun" at Royal Dornoch Golf Club last Friday with music from Golspie High School Interact Club members.

Historylinks Museum's supper at Dornoch Social Club on January 24 had an interesting twist.

Former Torbol shepherd Jimmy Anderson provided the museum with a copy of a programme for a Burns Night held by Dornoch Burns Club exactly 90 years to the day. Copies of the historic document were placed on all the tables at the museum event.

Members of Helmsdale Hub thoroughly enjoyed their Burns meal, prepared by the hub's Dinner to Your Door service on January 24. Music was provided by Jimmy Melville and Friends and Carly Whitehead was the piper.

Dornoch Christian Fellowship played host to around 70 diners at a "joyous" free event in Dornoch Social Club on January 25. Pastor Grant Fairns gave a short, interesting talk on the poet and his poetry.

Patrick Marriot delivers the Toast to the Lassies in a 'Betty Burns' wig at the Rotary event. Looking on is Fiona Risk.

Helmsdale Hub's Burns meal was prepared by the Dinner to Your Door service.

Alisdair Miller addresses the haggis at the Rotary event. Seated behind are Patrick Marriot and Councillor Deirdre Mackay.

Henrietta Marriot at the Rotary event replying to the Toast to the Lassies.

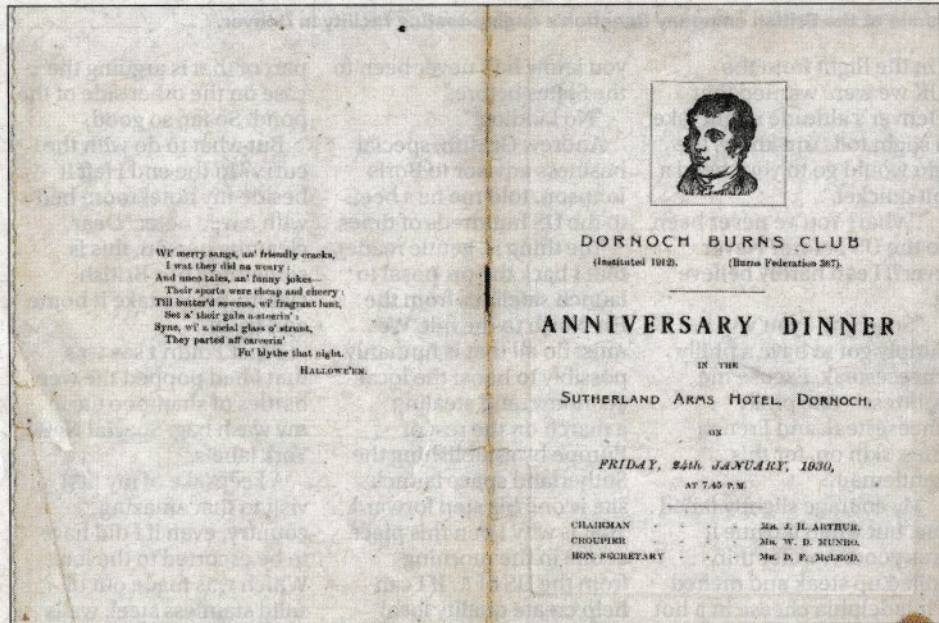

Twins Lucy and Isla Robertson perform at Dornoch and District Christian Fellowship's Burns supper.

Carly Whitehead pipes at Helmsdale.

Members of Golspie High School's Interact Club entertain Rotarians.

Historylinks was thrilled to be given this 90-year-old Dornoch Burns Club programme.

Scott Aitcheson delivers Tae a Louse to the Rotary.

Simon Scott sings Aye Fond Kiss.