

Dear Madam

Towne 9th July 1716.

I am much obliged to you for being so mindful of paying the school dues so regularly for your boys, that your last quarter does not expire till the 15th of this current month of July. so that you see the quarters for the next is paid 6 days before the time.

I wish all parents were so attentive to their duty in this particular: but they are not and in consequence of their negligence I must have recourse to the disagreeable plan of turning out their children.

I am
Dear Madam
yours most obediently
