

No.	Date.	Title.
1	22/ 9/ 14.	Ralph Matthews "K.O." Regiment front trench, St. Marguerite.
2.	17/ 9/ 14	One of our M.G. positions outside a wood at Venizel.
3.	24/ 9/ 14.	Our home in the front trench at St. Marguerite.
4.	8/ 9/ 14.	Transport (M.X. Regiment) ^{Middlesex Regt} struck by shrapnel at Signey Signet. The man with the bad scalp wound and goggles is an Intelligence Corps fellow. The blood on his face prevented him taking his bike away.
5.	24/ 9/ 14	Germans bursting heavy Howitzer shells at one of our aeroplanes on the Aisne.
6.	24/ 9/ 14	Maitland (Essex) and his gun in the front trench at St. Marguerite. The Gunner Officer is the observer who knocked out the German guns. Atcheson is on the left.
7.	19/ 9/ 14	The Machine Guns position at St. Marguerite.
8.	10/ 9/ 14	"D" Coy. 1/ The Cameronians crossing the Marne at La Ferte Sans Jouarre.
9	12/ 9/ 14	Our 60 Pounders on Trek - after the Marne.
10	11/ 9/ 14	Burnt German Aeroplanes between Marne and Aisne.
11	20/ 8/ 14	Busigny Station. One of the immense French trains which carry a whole regiment with baggage.
12	1/ 9/ 14	The Queen's Bays with German prisoners after Nery. These are the famous Death's Head Hussars.
13	19/ 8/ 14	"D" Coy. route marching at Maretz.
14.	29/ 8/ 14	Breakfast and toilet. Pontoise.
15.	20/ 8/ 14	Orderly Room, Maretz. The Maire Torpid and Rose.
16	6/ 9/ 14	1/ The Cameronians on the highway near La Haute Maison.
17	8/ 9/ 14	Wood, like a Fairy Godmother produces rations on "Ration Hill" Signet.
18	10/ 9/ 14	La Ferte Sans Jouarre. Wood 8 French and English troops.
19	24/ 8/ 14	A halt at farm during the retreat the day after Mons canal. Vandeleur is looking at the Taube which was following us up.
20	28/ 8/ 14	Self - Colonel - Davidson - R.W. - on the retreat.

- 21 1/9/14 Brodie and a Uhlan horse he got after the Cavalry action at Nery when "L" Battery got such a doing.
- 22 8/9/14 Our guns come into action at Signey Signet.
- 23 25/8/14. A wayside halt when marching to reinforce the left at Le Cateau.
- 24 " A consultation before Le Cateau. Sam Darling - Hamilton - Colonel Robertson - Ronnie MacAllan.
- 25 7/9/14 Lee and the Colonel - Early morning toilet. La Haute Maison.
- 26 1/9/14 Brodie's looted horse at Nery.
- 27 17/9/14 Julia (R. Webster) supported by Haynes and Elkin, fishes on the Aisne.
- 28 9/9/14 The German line on the Marne, viewed from Signey Signet, La Ferté
& Sans Jouarre, is seen burning to the right
- 29
- 30 5/10/14 Company cooks preparing breakfasts - When we were marching by night and hiding by day.
- 31 4/10/14 Sunday - after Church Parade - Septmonts.
Chaplin - Riddell Webster Pat Hewitt -
Colonel Ratcliffe R.W.F. The Colonel.
- 32 1/10/14. T.S.R-W. and his horses at Septmonts.
- 33 5/10/14 French Cavalry on the march.
- 34 1/10/14 (A group of H.Q. etc., outside H.Q. billets - Septmonts.
Hamilton - Becher.
Hill - MacAllan - Darling - Riddell Webster - Oakley - The Colonel
Graham - Hobkirk.
(Davidson - Rooke.
35. 25/10/14 observation post in Ritchie's farm, eventually destroyed.

Titles for Lieut. R.C. Money's Photographs.

No.	Date.	Title.
35	25/10/14.	Observation post in Ritchie's farm, eventually destroyed.
36	29/10/14 & 30/10/14	German dead after a night attack on Ritchie's farm. Ritchie was mortally wounded in this action. The photograph taken from "Rorkes" post.
37	30/10/14	"My" trench and No.2 Machine Gun. Angle thrown back behind Ritchie's farm. We pulled down the haystack, and Cowan was sniped.
38	28/10/14	"C" Coy's trench and the way across the road - This became a barricade later on.
39	28/10/14	In "C" Coy's trench - Ritchie can be seen, beyond him Private Cairns (D.C.M) and No.1 Machine Gun.
40	5/11/14	Looking out for a sniper in the "Cabbage Patch" trench (S.M. Malins "Rorke"- Nichell.
41	2/11/14	The burning of "Rorkes" post. He, and one or two observers only just got out in time - Hill is seen in foreground.
42	5/11/14	From the observers point of view - in the "Cabbage Patch" trench - Germans 180 yards away.
43	5/11/14	Self and No. 1 Machine Gun (Mem. another must not be photographed again!)
44	30/10/14	Ritchie's farm being finally finished off - "Rorkes" post being left standing - Note, tree cut in half by shells.
45	3/11/14	"Thorpes" farm being "Black Maria-ed" in the foreground relics of German equipment.
46	21/10/14	A battery of the famous 75 m/m French Field Guns ready for action at Le Bas Maisnil. Davidson is sighting gun.
47	21/10/14	No. 1 Gun fired. Barrell at limit of recoil.
48	21/10/14	This shell (the fuse can be seen) narrowly missed our heads while taking the above photos, and landed behind us, fortunately it did not burst - it turned right over on landing.
49	21/10/14	A battery of the famous 75 m/m French Field Guns in action at Le Bas Maisnil. "The Rafale" No.1 is already reloaded, No.2 reloaded, No.3 at limit of recoil.
50	21/10/14	One of the famous French 75 m/m Field Guns and Ammunition waggon. Davidson and Churchill behind limber.
51	21/10/14	A battery of the famous 75 m/m French Field Guns in action.
52	19/10/14	Going to the trenches - Viamatingne to Levantie by bus.

No.	Date.	Title.
53	19/10/14	A. & S. Highlanders have to foot it - Vlamatinghe.
54	21/10/14	A battery of the famous 75 m/m French Field Guns in action No.1 Gun and its team.
55	15/10/14	Mails from home, by the roadside, outside Steenwercke. Rose is seen on the right.
56	17/11/14	Roche and a shell case buried in a tree outside Bac St. Naur.
57	17/11/14	"Kulture" at Bac St. Naur.
58	19/10/14	The move from Vlamatinghe to Levantie.
59	19/10/14	Vlamatinghe. The assembly of buses at the start of the trip to Levantie, 38 buses were employed.
60	10/10/14	our billet at Renescouse - an old place - 14th Century - in parts.
61	18/11/14	The back of our trenches showing our bedrooms.
62	18/11/14	In the trenches. H.Q. Mess hut, and very nice too. Left to right - Oakley - Colonel Robertson - Davidson - Darling.
63	20/11/14	C.D.W.R. Copy of a map of the trenches in H.Q. Mess hut, outside Houplines, S. of Iys.
64	18/11/14	Dawn - Hobbers and Chaplin.
65	18/11/14	The back of our trenches showing our bedrooms.
66	18/11/14	A frosty dawn - Making early morning tea - Hamilton outside "D" Coy's Mess.
67	18/11/14	Machine Gun Hut.
68	20/11/14	The troops digging potatoes. Our trenches were conveniently situated at the edge of a potatoe field.
69	20/11/14	Davidson and Becher - (My .450 "Converted" Gun)
70	20/11/14	Colonel Robertson scrapes snow from the roof of H.Q.'s Mess hut
71	20/11/14	Self outside - Davidson and my "Dug-out"
72	20/11/14	Hamilton and Self.
73	20/11/14	Lee - too much for the Camera.

74. 5/12/14. In front of a British trench occupied by the 1st Batt. Cameronians, Scott. Rifles, showing the entanglements, and immediately in front are the German trenches. The ruined houses conceal the German snipers. The distance between the trenches is about from 150 to 200 yds.
- 75 5/12/14 In front of a British trench occupied by the 1st Batt. Cameronians, Scottish Rifles, showing the entanglements, and immediately in front are the German trenches. The ruined houses conceal the German snipers. The distance between the trenches is about from 150 to 200 yds. Note the cord fixed to entanglements and carried back to German trench.
- 77 5/12/14 Same as 74, but taken at a nearer distance. The ruined buildings full of the German snipers cause a great deal of trouble, and the soldiers have got to be careful in their movements.
- 78 5/12/14 In front of a British trench occupied by the 1st Batt. Cameronians, Scottish Rifles, showing the entanglements, and immediately in front are the German trenches. The ruined houses conceal the German snipers. The distance between the trenches is about from 150 to 200 yds. Note cord fixed to entanglements and carried back to German trench.
- 79 7/12/14 British 18 pounder Field Gun in cunningly concealed shelter.
- 80 7/12/14 British 18 pounder Field Gun in cunningly concealed shelter
- 81 7/12/14 British 18 pounder Field Gun in cunningly concealed shelter
- 82 7/12/14 British 18 pounder Field Gun in cunningly concealed shelter.
- 83 7/12/14 Private Cairns. A young soldier of the 1st Batt. Cameronians, Scottish Rifles, who was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal by the King himself for conspicuous gallantry in the field. He is seen wearing his ribbons of this medal.
- 84 7/12/14 Private Cairns. A young soldier of the 1st Batt. Cameronians Scott. Rifles, who was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal by the King himself for conspicuous gallantry in the field. He is seen wearing his ribbons of this medal.
- 85 7/12/14 Class of instruction in the mechanism of the Machine Gun being held in a deserted Spinningmill during a few days rest from the trenches.
- 86 7/12/14 Orderly Room of the 1st Batt. Cameronians, whilst in billets.
- 87 7/12/14 British 18 pounder Field Gun in cunningly concealed shelter
- 88 7/12/14 One of the famous British Field Howitzer's 4.5" for which the Germans have a great respect, having its morning clean up.
- 95 19/12/14 "C" Coy. in the next bay to No. 1 Gun - Note steel loop hole.
- 97 19/12/14 A German searchlight at night - The blaze is due to it suddenly being turned on the camera.

- 98 19/12/14. In the Trenches.
- 99 19/12/14 The Machine Gun has its morning clean up.
- 100 19/12/14 A 4.5" Howitzer - in its concealed position - during an off time - (Houplines line)
- 89 20/12/14 Sunshine after the Storm.
"Houplines" Trenches.
Sergt. Grant. (Clearing mud out
Wright. (of the trenches.
- 90 20/12/14 Houplines Trenches
Pte. Griffith
Chaplin Wright McLellan.
- 91 20/12/14 "A" Coy's Trenches - shovelling out the mud.
- 92 20/12/14 Darling.
- 93 20/12/14 "A" Coy. keeping above water.
- 94 20/12/14 In the Trenches.