It was an evening full of music.

Burns supper at Dornoch was full of music and song

THE weather was stormy but that didn't stop Dornoch Heritage Society's Burns supper and ceilidh going ahead with a swing on January 24.

Bill Shannon addressed the Haggis in great style. It was a return visit for the Bain Family Band who travelled from Hilton.

Logan Mackay (13) joined piper Gillian Sutherland at the end of the set to rapturous applause (see picture right) and Simon Scott ended the evening with his warm tenor voice.

Young fiddle players showcased their musical skills.
