

THREE HUNDRED GUINEAS.

ADDRESS AND DECLARATION

OF THE

2d Fencible Regiment.

WE, the Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Privates of his Majesty's 2d or Sutherland Fencible Regiment of Infantry, think it our duty, at this Crisis, to declare to our COLONEL—requesting that he, in any form he thinks best, will make the same publicly known:

1st, That our attachment to our King, Country, and happy Constitution is, and ever shall be, inviolable; and that we shall shed the last drop of our blood in the defence of the same.

2^d, That we are ready to pay TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS for apprehending or detecting any person or persons who has, or shall, attempt to seduce Soldiers of our own, or any other CORPS, from their Duty—holding all such base attempts in the utmost detestation and abhorrence.

3^d, That, to shew our unanimity, every Individual of us is ready to subscribe these our Resolutions, and to bind ourselves to advance FOUR DAYS' PAY, when necessary, for the above purpose, which the detached state of the Regiment prevented our doing sooner.—And we now empower the Pay-Serjeant, and Senior Corporal of each Company, to subscribe this Address and Declaration in our behalf.—GOD SAVE THE KING!
