Dear Miss Burns

Sorry we found it necessary to start for the North early next Morning which prevented our intended call upon you & your Mother.

I was sorry indeed to hear of your Father's death which I did in New York.

but it came again to me with a shock in Dumfries as I had forgotten for the moment.

My kind regards to your dear old Mother
- glad she has you to watch over her, that's one comfort.

Sincerely yours

Andrew Carnegie
