

THE LENNOX HERALD, SEPTEMBER 10,

A GOOD RECORD.—Dr John T. Maclachlan, who was educated at Dumbarton Academy, recently completed 50 years in active practice as a doctor. His brother, Dr James, who retired 2 years ago, also did 50 years of active work. Their eldest brother, Dr W. A. M'Lachlan, was in active practice in Dumbarton for 35 years. The three brothers have, therefore, done 135 years of medical work. All three brothers were born in Vale of Leven district, where their father and grandfather were master slaters and plasterers.

THE RIALTO.—At the College Street cinema this week-end there is really satisfying general entertainment, well off the beaten track. This is found in the screening of the adaptation of Ian Hay's play, "House-master." The acting is flawless, with every character perfectly drawn. Co-starring are Otto Kruger, Diana Churchill and Phillips Holmes. The management have secured for showing during the first half of next week Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount historical "The Buccaneer," a thrilling and soul

ALEXANDRIA

THE HALL.—An outstanding is being shown here this week-end. Lorre, Dolores Del Rio and G in "Lancer Spy," the untold Great War. Next week's feature for the first three days, Geor Anita Louise in "The Go-Get Peter B. Kyne story ever so change mid-week features Joel Burns, Frances Dee and Llo "Wells Fargo," a glorious adv ing the march of a nation.

VETERANS' BOWLING CLUB.—Bowlers had a visit from a terton Town Council last week rink match was played. The team was sponsored by Dean o and included Provost Camp Provost Barr. Victory went to by 102 shots to 54. After th visitors were entertained to tea against Vale of Leven Ladies Tuesday, the Veterans were