Dear Sir,

I refer to your recent phone call.

I have now pleasure confirming that the date you suggested to visit Dornoch, e.g. Tuesday 26th February is suitable.

The meeting to be held in the Social Club Dornoch at 8.P.M. I have been instructed to arrange a meal for you in the Eagle Hotel and meet some of the branch officials, before the meeting.

It is our intention to invite Col. Alan Gilmour to come along with you.

Yours faithfully,

Hon. Secretary.

Dear Sir,

I understand from Brigadier F.H. Coutts that you have very kindly offered to come to Dornoch and re-activate interest in our branch.

While the final arrangements and date must be to suit your own good self and possibly Mr. Jack Bussey, who I understand would also come north, may I suggest that a night at the beginning of the week e.g. Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday would be the most suitable at this end.

Meantime I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Hon. Secretary.
A.W. Mackenzie.

Dear Harry,

Dornoch Branch

It was good of you to 'phone. I passed on your regards to Jock Grant and he asked to be very kindly remembered to you. Colin MacLeod has not been all that well since he retired. I'll give him your good wishes when next I see him.

We have considered your suggestion about a speaker from National Headquarters for your proposed Legion Night in Dornoch when you hope to re-activate interest in the local Branch. In view of the national crisis we felt that, if possible, the speaker should come from the North and therefore propose that the National Vice-Chairman, Major-General Ian A. Robertson, CB, MBE, DL, Brackla House, Cawdor, by Nairn (Tel: 06677 220) would be the most suitable choice. I shall write to him separately and ask if he would be prepared to make himself available.

*Yours sincerely,
Frank Coutts*
