Extension of Appointment - Adjutant.

FROM

The Officer Commanding,

5th Bn. THE KING'S (LIVERPOOL REGIMENT).

TO

The Brigade Major,

Liverpool Brigade,

Liverpool.

HEADQUARTERS:

65 ST. ANNE STREET,

LIVERPOOL, 14th July, 1909.

Sir,

With reference to War Office Letter 9/Inf/861 (A.G.5.)d/-8.7.09, stating that Captain Rose's appointment as Adjutant of this Battalion expires on 10th October, 1909, I beg to request that his appointment be extended for one year i.e. till 10th October, ~~1909~~ 1910.

The services of this Officer have been invaluable to me during the transformation of the Corps from Volunteer to Territorial, and I think it most desirable that until the Territorial Force is firmly ~~settled~~ established as few changes as possible in the Battalion Staff should take place. Further, I also consider this extension desirable owing to Captain Rose's great ability in working up the Officers and N.C.Os in their various Military Duties, both for parade and examinations.

I have have asked Captain Rose if he wishes to accept this extension and find he wishes to do so.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

2. THE KING'S (LIVERPOOL REGIMENT)

I quite sympathise with Colonel Allenders' desire to retain the services of such an efficient Adjutant; but both in the interest of the service generally and also of Captain Rose himself I think it most important that he should resign his Regiment on the conclusion of his tenure. Things move very fast now a days and it is for the benefit of all concerned that I feel compelled to refuse this application.
