

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION SCOTLAND

HANDBOOK 1975

For the use of Members

The Poppy

Symbol of self-sacrifice and suffering in the defence of our Country — But also the symbol of the after-care service provided for our servicemen by

THE EARL HAIG FUND (SCOTLAND)

Over 5000 ex-Servicemen and their dependants helped annually in trouble.

Our Homes for elderly ex-Servicemen in Glasgow and Edinburgh open to all in need.

Employment for disabled ex-Servicemen at The Lady Haig's Poppy Factory, Warriston Road, Edinburgh.

For assistance apply to:

HAIG HOUSE,
23 Drumsheugh Gardens,
Edinburgh EH3 7RN. Tel. 031-225 6891.

HAIG HOUSE,
1 Fitzroy Place,
Glasgow G3. Tel. 041-221 8141.

AND PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY FOR YOUR POPPY

HANDBOOK 1975

Published by the National Council, The Royal British Legion, Scotland
23 Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh EH3 7RR. Tel. 031-225 7901.

CONTENTS

	Page
Purpose, Principles and Policy	3
Membership, Organisation, Branch Formation	4
Branch Committees, Branch Meetings	5
Duties of elected officials	6
Area Councils	8
Annual Conference, Headquarters.	9
Pensions	11
Welfare	13
Publicity	14
Clubs and Sports	15
Supplies Department	16
Printing Department	16
Piping and Pipe Bands	16
Notes for Guidance of Branch Officials	17
The Earl Haig Fund (Scotland)	19
Notes for Speakers	22
Colour Bearers — Notes for Guidance.	24
Women's Section	28
The Officers Association.	29
Appendix I — Sports and Other National Trophies.	29
Appendix II — Rules for National Sports Events	30