

creativity!

- lots for kids to see & do

History is fun for children too! Heat up their brain cells with puzzles and quizzes from their very own guide - the Dornoch Imp!

Dress them up!

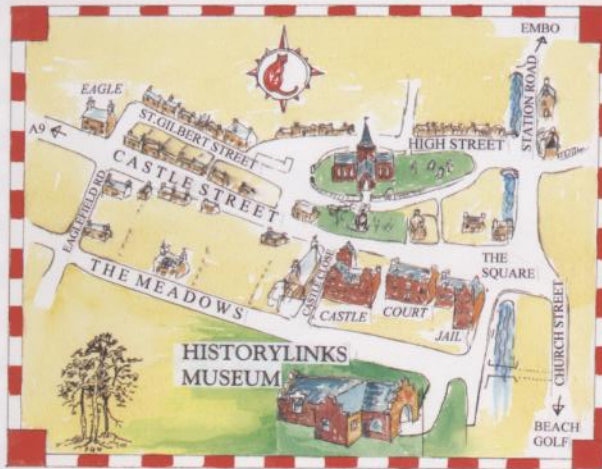

Lock them up!

Feed a message to the dragon!

HISTORYLINKS is tucked behind the Dornoch Castle Hotel, a short walk from the Cathedral - look out for the signs.

How to find us

Dornoch is off the A9 Inverness to Wick road, an hour from Inverness.

Opening times 10am - 4pm

April, May and October:

Monday to Friday

June to September: Every day

November to March:

Wednesday and Thursday

Small admission charge, FREE to children accompanied by adults. The museum is all on one level and there are no restrictions to physical access.

Historylinks Museum

The Meadows, Dornoch
Sutherland IV25 3SF

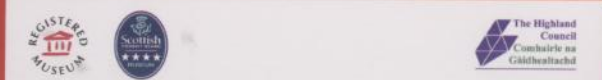

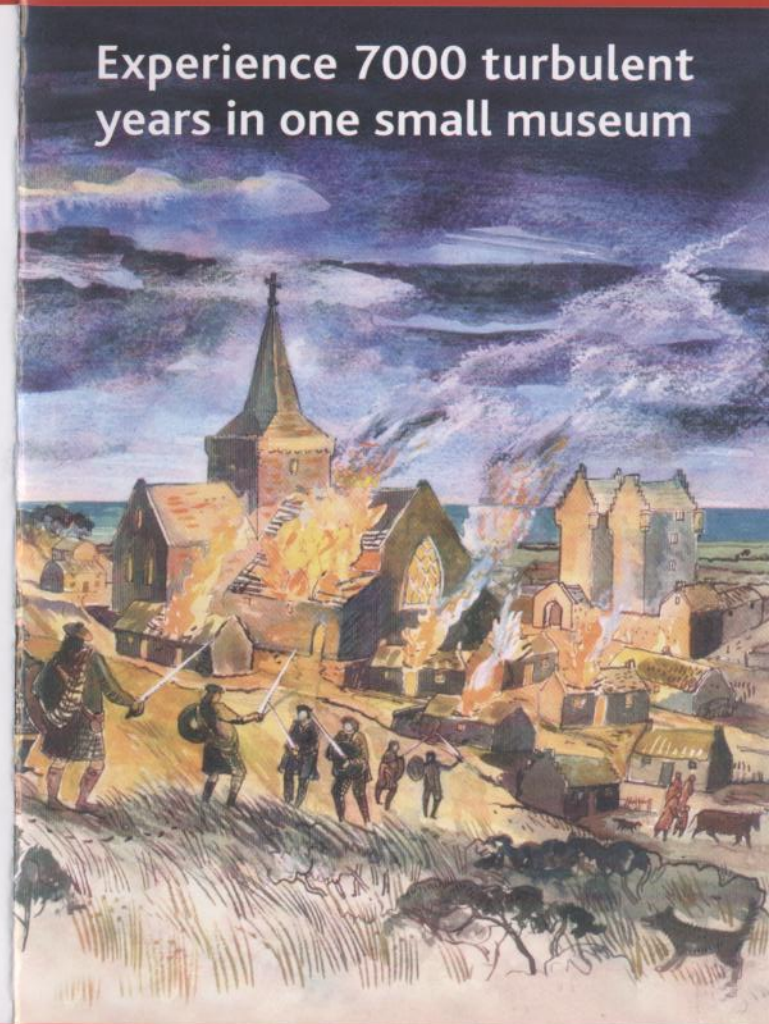

T: 01862 811275

E: enquiries@historylinks.org.uk

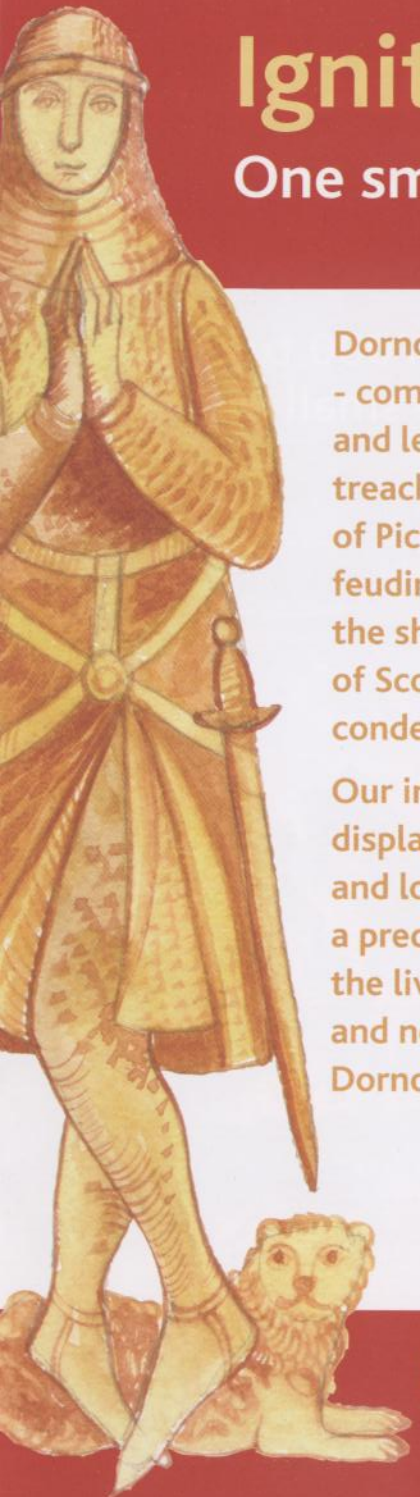

www.historylinks.org.uk

Dornoch is all fired up!

Experience 7000 turbulent years in one small museum

HISTORYLINKS MUSEUM

Ignite your imagination!

One small museum - 7000 years of history

Dornoch has a fiery past - come to Historylinks and learn about the treachery and violence of Picts and Vikings, our feuding clans and the shameful burning of Scotland's last condemned witch.

Our interpretive displays, historic objects and local tales give you a precious insight into the lives of ordinary, and not so ordinary, Dornoch folk.

Find out about the incredible powers of ST GILBERT, builder of Dornoch Cathedral.

The Golf Professional's Workshop

See where Dornoch's Donald Ross honed his skills before he went on to design more than 500 American courses!

Don't miss the HISTORYLINKS TRAIL. Starting from the Museum, the trail leads through 16 sites of particular historical interest.

A 17th century 'DEID BELL' used to announce deaths.

Dornoch On Film

For your further entertainment, we have a choice of three movies:

- Sutherland in 1950
- Links through Dornoch's history
- The Dornoch Light Railway

The First Sutherland Volunteers

See our original Colour Sergeant's uniform of The First Sutherland Volunteers (circa 1882).

Andrew Carnegie

The world's richest man bought Skibo Castle to relax with his family and friends.

Guide maps, booklets and audio tours are available.