

NOTED DIVINE IN THE CITY

One of Scotland's distinguished sons and one of the recognized leaders in the Church of Scotland is a visitor in St. Catharines—the Rev. Chas. R. Bentinck, D.D., minister of Dornoch Cathedral. Dr. Bentinck has just celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary as a minister of this historic church. It is through his efforts that the cathedral dating from the 12th century, has been restored, a work in which he was able to enlist the sympathetic interest of the Duke of Sutherland and of the late Mr. Carnegie, whose Scottish estate of Skibo lies within the parish. In recognition of this important national work and of his scholarly volume on the history of Dornoch Cathedral the University recently conferred on its minister his Doctorate of Divinity.

More recently another exceptional honour has come to this distinguished servant of the church in the invitation of the trustees of the National Gallery of History to permit his portrait to have a place among historic contemporaries. This honour is conferred on only two others besides Dr. Bentinck this year.

Dr. Bentinck is visiting his daughter.
