

Association of Burgh Officials of Scotland.

Joint-Secretaries' Office:

97 WEST REGENT STREET,

GLASGOW, 1st March, 1912.

DEAR SIR,

The Burgh Police (Scotland) Amendment
Act, 1911.

The Committee have prepared a model form of Bye-laws, a print of which is enclosed herewith.

It may be thought advisable that variations should be made on the form to meet the special circumstances of particular Burghs, but the Committee hope that the print sent may be of service to you.

Yours faithfully,

JAS. DONALDSON,
ROBERT BRYCE WALKER,
Joint-Secretaries.

Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1911.

PLACES FOR PUBLIC REFRESHMENT.

The Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of _____, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1911, and particularly Section 82 (2) of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1903, and Section 1 (2) of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1911, and Sections 316 and 317 of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and of other powers, do hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws:—

*[Or restrict to certain hours on that day.]

1. No person registered in terms of Section 82 (1) of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1903, as amended by the Burgh Police (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1911, to keep or use any house, building, part of a building, or other premises, as a place for public refreshment, shall keep such premises open or suffer them to be kept open at any time on Sundays,* or except during the hours between seven of the clock in the morning and ten of the clock at night on any other day.
2. No box or compartment in any place for public refreshment shall have any door thereon, or have any partition, side, or division more than three feet high above the level of the floor.
3. No sitting-room in any place for public refreshment shall have any snib or bolt or any other contrivance on the door enabling the occupant to close the door of such sitting-room in such a way as to prevent the door being opened from the outside thereof.
4. No premises kept or used as a place for public refreshment shall have any internal communication with any private dwelling-house or apartment used as a private dwelling-house or living room.
5. Places for public refreshment must be adequately lighted throughout to the satisfaction of the Inspector of Lighting or other officer appointed for the purpose by the Town Council.
6. The keeper of a place for public refreshment shall refuse to admit therein any person in a state of intoxication, or of known bad character.

PENALTY.

Every person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each breach, provided always that the Magistrate, or other Court, before whom the penalty hereby imposed is sought to be recovered, may adjudge the payment as a penalty of any sum less than the full amount of such penalty to be paid, or may remit the whole penalty.

Made by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of _____, this _____ day of _____

Nineteen hundred and _____
