

Dear Sir's,

With pleasure that I write you regarding the owner of the district of kildonan, Could you at rt hon gent supply the needfull, if its Yourself It would be very gratefull of you if you could certify the correct owner and the address, So far I have been practically defeated, apparently no one knows exactly, but there is some honourable person of title the proprieter of the parish of kildonan, A hon gent refers me to write You and that You will favour and oblige, The reason I was to have a wee kitchen erected at the east garvel of the little house 316 dunrobin street that is the rates and fue number, house address is 65 dunrobin str helmsdale, but I cant get on with it, until sanction is gtanted by the owner, if the owner is traced, then proceedings can be gone on with and the charter will be sent to the proprieter for view, The site was used by the public young and old as a Midden night and day and especially the brazen ones out of the hotel bars and the mess and stink and hum is inbearable, and we cant get out and in to the garden on the night or day but our footwear and clothes and hands are full of human Manure and the stink in summer is enough to give us disintree or tyfoid fever, us residing here has to bear it all and no one does it, They Watch there chance in doing it when there is no one of the folks in sight, Then the human manure and urine is laid and away they go at top speed, Some times the women belonging to the house when going out without ever dreaming of obstacles at the end of the house with clothes to be hanged on the clothes ropes They find Males improperly dressed doing urine mischief, There is a space at the end of the house and they pounce at that as a dump for such, They even come from the dance and concert hall to smoke and swig bottles of alcohol and linger in Yarning, balling, howling, and use loud Vile language etc, So I hope to god on high You will come to my rescue, by giving me the right address and where he resides of the proprieter, his Name and his address, its horrible what we had to bear in the past, all for the want of the name and address of the proprieter, for service to the country we now live in no other in the district has equals, please Sir oblige, so that we can prevent this awfull work going on any longer, Many respectable persons said why do no you have it stopped, and put a wee kitchen up as Your house will be the better of it and it requires badly,

Trusting You Shall be successfull in letting us no of the address, so that we will stop this wicked work.
